

Bipartite Settlement dated 10.04.2002 (Amended upto date)

Disciplinary Action against Workmen Staff and Procedure therefore

A person against whom disciplinary action is proposed or likely to be taken shall in the first instance be informed of the particulars of the charge against him and he shall have a proper opportunity to give his explanation as to such particulars. Final orders shall be passed after due consideration of all the relevant facts and circumstances. With this object in view, the following shall apply.

2. By the expression "offence" shall be meant any offence involving moral turpitude for which an employee is liable to conviction and sentence under any provision of Law.

3. (a) When in the opinion of the management an employee has committed an offence, unless he be otherwise prosecuted, the bank may take steps to prosecute him or get him prosecuted and in such a case he may also be suspended.

(b) If he be convicted, he may be dismissed with effect from the date of his conviction or be given any, lesser form of punishment as mentioned in Clause 6 below.

(c) If he be acquitted, it shall be open to the management to proceed against him under the provisions set out below in Clauses 11 and 12 infra relating to discharges. However, in the event of the management deciding after enquiry not to continue him in service, he shall be liable only for termination of service with three months pay and allowances in lieu of notice. And he shall be deemed to have been on duty during the period of suspension, if any, and shall be entitled to the full pay and allowances minus such subsistence allowance as he has drawn and to all other privileges for the period of suspension provided that if he be acquitted by being given the benefit of doubt he may be paid such portion of such pay and allowances as the management may deem proper and the period of his absence shall not be treated as a period spent on duty unless the management so directs.

(d) If he prefers an appeal or revision application against his conviction and is acquitted, in case he had already been dealt with as above and he applies to the management for reconsideration of his case, the management shall review his case and may either reinstate him or proceed against him under the provisions set out below in Clauses 11 and 12 infra relating to discharge and the provision set out above as to pay, allowances and the period of suspension will apply the period up-to-date for which full pay and allowances have not been drawn being treated as one of suspension. In the event of the management deciding, after enquiry not to continue him in service, the employee shall be liable only for termination with three months pay and allowance in lieu of notice, as directed above.

4. If after steps have been taken to prosecute an employee or to get him prosecuted, for an offence, he is not put on trial within a year of the commission of the offence, the management may then deal with him as if he had committed an act of "gross misconduct" or of "minor misconduct" as defined below; provided that if the authority which was to start prosecution proceedings refuses to do so or comes to the conclusion that there is no case for prosecution it shall be open to the management to proceed against the employee under the provisions set out below in Clauses 11 and 12 infra relating to discharge, but he shall be deemed to have been on duty during the period of suspension, if any, and shall be entitled to the full wages and allowances and to all other privileges for such period. In the event of the management deciding, after enquiry, not to continue him in service, he shall be liable only for termination with three months pay and allowances in lieu of notice as provided in Clause 3 above. If within the pendency of the proceedings thus instituted he is put on trial such proceedings shall be stayed pending the completion of the trial, after which the provisions mentioned in Clause 3 above shall apply.

5. By the expression "gross misconduct" shall be meant any of the following acts and omissions on the part of an employee:

(a) engaging in any trade or business outside the scope of his duties except with the written permission of the bank;

(b) unauthorised disclosure of information regarding the affairs of the bank or any of its customers or any other person connected with the business of the bank which is confidential or the disclosure of which is likely to be prejudicial to the interests of the bank;

(o) Not wearing, while on duty, identity card issued by the bank;

(p) Not wearing, while on duty, the uniforms supplied by the bank, in clean condition;

(q) doing any act prejudicial to the interest of the bank;

(r) Misconducts covered under Clause 7 (a) to (q) shall not be made out as 'gross misconduct' under Clause 5.

8. An employee found guilty of minor misconduct may:

(a) be warned or censured; or

(b) have an adverse remark entered against him; or

(c) have his increment stopped for a period not longer than six months.

9. A workman found guilty of misconduct, whether gross or minor, shall not be given more than one punishment in respect of any one charge.

10. In all cases in which action under Clauses 4, 6 or 8 may be taken, the proceedings held shall be entered in a book kept specially for the purpose. In which the date on which the proceedings are held, the name of the employee proceeded against, the charge or charges, the evidence on which they are based, the explanation and the evidence, if any, tendered by the said employee, the finding or findings with the grounds on which they are based and the order passed shall be recorded with sufficient fullness, as clearly as possible and such record of the proceedings shall be signed by the officer who holds them, after which a copy of such record shall be furnished to the employee concerned if so requested by him in writing.

11. When it is decided to take any disciplinary action against an employee such decision shall be communicated to him within three days thereof.

12. The procedure in such cases shall be as follows:-

(a) An employee against whom disciplinary action is proposed or likely to be taken shall be given a charge-sheet clearly setting forth the circumstances appearing against him and a date shall be fixed for enquiry, sufficient time being given to him to enable him to prepare and give his explanation as also to produce any evidence that he may wish to tender in his defence. He shall be permitted to appear before the officer conducting the enquiry, to cross-examine any witness on whose evidence the charge rests and to examine witnesses and produce other evidence in his defence. He shall also be permitted to be defended;

(i) (x) by a representative of a registered trade union of bank employees of which he is a member on the date first notified for the commencement of the enquiry.

(y) where the employee is not a member of any trade union of bank employees on the aforesaid dates by a representative of a registered trade union of employees of the bank in which he is employed;

OR

(ii) at the request of the said union by a representative of the state federation or all India Organisation to which such union is affiliated;

OR

(iii) with the Bank's permission, by a lawyer.

He shall also be given a hearing as regards the nature of the proposed punishment in case any charge is established against him.

(b) Pending such inquiry or initiation of such inquiry he may be suspended, but if on the conclusion of the enquiry it is decided to take no action against him he shall be deemed to have been on duty and shall be entitled to the full wages and allowances and to all other privileges for the period of suspension; and, if some punishment other than dismissal is inflicted the whole or a part of the period of suspension, may, at the discretion of the management, be treated as on duty with the right to a corresponding portion of the wages, allowances, etc.

(c) In awarding punishment by way of disciplinary action the authority concerned shall take into account the gravity of the misconduct, the previous record, if any, of the employee and any other aggravating or extenuating circumstances, that may exist. Where sufficiently extenuating circumstances exist the misconduct may be condoned and in case such misconduct is of the gross type he may be merely discharged, with or without notice or on payment of a month's pay and allowances, in lieu of notice. Such discharge may also be given where the evidence is found to be insufficient to sustain the charge and where the bank does not, for some reason or other, think it expedient to retain the employee in question any longer in service. Discharge in such cases shall not be deemed to amount to disciplinary action.

(d) If the representative defending the employee is an employee of the same bank at an outstation branch within the same State, he shall be relieved on special leave (on full pay and allowances) to represent the employee and be paid one return fare. The class of fare to which he will be entitled would be the same as while travelling on duty. In case of any adjournment at the instance of the bank/enquiry officer he may be asked to resume duty and if so, will be paid fare for the consequential journey. He shall also be paid full halting allowance for the period he stays at the place of the enquiry for defending the employee as also for the days of the journeys which are undertaken at the bank's cost.

If the representative defending the employee is an employee of the same bank at an outstation branch situated outside the State, on a case to case basis as may be decided by the Bank, he shall be relieved on special leave (on full pay and allowances) to represent the employee and shall be paid one return fare.

Explanation: 'State' for the purpose shall mean the area which constitutes a political State, but this explanation will not apply to SBI:

(e) An enquiry need not be held if:

(i) the bank has issued a show cause notice to the employee advising him of the misconduct and the punishment for which he may be liable for such misconduct;

(ii) the employee makes a voluntary admission of his guilt in reply to the aforesaid show cause notice; and

(iii) the misconduct is such that even if proved the bank does not intend to award the punishment of discharge or dismissal.

However, if the employee concerned requests a hearing regarding the nature of punishment such a hearing shall be given.

(f) An enquiry need not also be held if the employee is charged with minor misconduct and the punishment proposed to be given is warning or censure. However,

(i) the employee shall be served a show cause notice advising him of the misconduct and the evidence on which the charge is based; and

(ii) the employee shall be given an opportunity to Submit his written statement of defence, and for this purpose has a right to have access to the documents and "material" on which the charge is based;

(iii) if the employee requests a hearing such a hearing shall be given and in such a hearing he may be permitted to be represented by a representative authorised to defend him in an enquiry had such an enquiry been held.

(g) Where an employee is charged with a minor misconduct and an enquiry is not held on two previous occasions, an enquiry shall be held in respect of the third occasion.

13. Where the provisions of this Settlement conflict with the procedure or rules in force in any bank regarding disciplinary action, they shall prevail over the latter. There may, in such procedure or rules, exist certain provisions outside the scope of the provisions contained in this Settlement enabling the bank to dismiss, warn, censure, fine an employee or have his increment stopped or have an adverse remark entered against him. In all such cases also the provisions set out in Clauses 10 and 11 above shall apply.

14. The Chief Executive Officer or the Principal Officer in India of a bank or an Alternate Officer at the Head Office or Principal Office nominated by him for the purpose shall decide which officer (i.e. the disciplinary authority) shall be empowered to take disciplinary action in the case of each office or establishment. He shall also decide which officer or body higher in status than the officer authorized to take disciplinary action shall act as the appellate authority to deal with or hear and dispose of any appeal against order passed in disciplinary matters. These authorities shall be nominated by, designation, to pass original orders or hear and dispose of appeals from time to time and a notice specifying the authorities so nominated shall be published from time to time on the bank's notice board. It is clarified that the disciplinary authority may conduct the enquiry himself or appoint another officer as the Enquiry Officer for the purpose of conducting an enquiry.

The appellate authority shall, if the employee concerned is so desirous, in a case of dismissal, hear him or his representatives before disposing of the appeal. In cases where hearings are not required, an appeal shall be disposed of within two months from the date of receipt thereof. In cases where hearings are required to be given and requested for, such hearings shall commence within one month from the date of receipt of the appeal and shall be disposed of within one month from the date of conclusion of such hearings. The period within which an appeal can be preferred shall be 45 days from the date on which the original order has been communicated in writing to the employee concerned.

15. Every employee who is dismissed or discharged shall be given a service certificate, without avoidable delay.

16. Any notice, order, charge-sheet communication or intimation which is meant for an individual employee, shall be in a language understood by the employee concerned. In the case of an absent employee notice shall be sent to him by registered post with acknowledgement due. If an employee refuses to accept any notice, order, charge-sheet, written communication or written intimation in connection, with disciplinary proceedings when it is sought to be served upon him, such refusal shall be deemed to be good service upon him, provided such refusal takes place in the presence of at least two persons including the person who goes to effect service upon him. Where any notice, order, charge-sheet, intimation or any other official communication which is meant for an individual employee is sent to him by registered post acknowledgement due of the last recorded address communicated in writing by the employee and acknowledged by the bank, the same is to be deemed as good service.

An employee placed under suspension pending disciplinary action shall be given an opportunity to represent to the management to reconsider the order of suspension.

If multiple charges as per procedural lapses are made out, then the punishment given in such cases shall be one.

Disciplinary authority shall have the discretion to decide whether the punishment will affect the superannuation benefits of the employee or not, in case where the punishment is affecting the superannuation benefits.

An employee who has been awarded the punishment of dismissal, compulsory discharge or removal from service by the Disciplinary Authority and subsequently where the punishment is confirmed by the Appellate Authority, shall be given an opportunity to seek reconsideration by an authority higher than the Appellate Authority.

Date of effect.

1. The provisions under this Memorandum of Settlement shall come into effect from the date of the Settlement and shall continue to govern and bind the parties until the Settlement is terminated by either party giving to the other a statutory notice as prescribed in law for the time being in force.

2. Copies of the Memorandum of Settlement will be jointly forwarded by the parties to the authorities listed in Rule 58 of the Industrial Disputes (Central) Rules 1957, so that the terms and conditions hereof are binding on the parties as provided in law.
