With revolutionary greetings,

Yours sincerely,

(SANJEEV K. BANDLISH)
GENERAL SECRETARY

“Meeting of UFBU was held today at New Delhi. Com.K.K. Nair, Chairman of UFBU presided over the meeting. The meeting whole heartedly congratulated and complimented all the Unions and the entire membership for making the strike action on 22nd August, 2017 a total success. The meeting observed that the despite the vehement and logical protest of the entire Bankmen of the country, the Central Government is trying to go ahead with their agenda of banking reforms. Although in retaliation to our strike, the Cabinet has decided and approved an alternative mechanism to oversee proposals of amalgamation of public sector banks. The Government has also issued the notification on 30.08.2017 on merger of nationalized Banks to be exempted from the purview of Competition Commission Act. Hence the meeting felt that when the Government is trying to move with such proposals, we should also plan and intensify our campaign and struggles thereagainst.

Parliament Morcha on 15th September 2017: In this background, it was decided that the next programme of Morcha to Parliament on 15th September, 2017 should be made an effective success with full mobilization by all the unions. The Morcha is proposed to begin by 10-00 AM from Ram Leela Grounds and the procession will march towards Parliament Street where the Mass Rally will be held and addressed by eminent leaders of Central Trade Unions, Members of Parliament, etc. All our Unions are requested to take note and mobilise their members in large number accordingly.

UFBU will meet thereafter and chalk out further course of action. We seek the co-operation of all our unions to make the Parliament Morcha programme a grand success.”
